

DAVE BOSTEDT

Missionary Dave Bostedt currently serves as pastor at Canyon Day and East Fork Lutheran Churches on the White Mountain Apache Reservation. There are about 600 souls in these churches. He, along with his wife Jo, live on the historic East Fork mission campus. Along with his pastoral duties at congregations, he teaches catechism to the seventh and eighth graders who attend East Fork Lutheran School. He also assists with the teaching of ACTS (Apache Christian Training School) classes, which prepare Apache students for future service as pastors, teachers, evangelists, deaconesses, etc.

During his 35 years of ministry, Missionary Bostedt has served varied and diverse congregations including a mission start in Colorado, tent ministry in Nebraska, a rural congregation in Wisconsin, a retirement-centric church in Florida, and a multi-cultural ministry in Los Angeles.
