

ANGUS CHEUNG

Rev. Dr. Angus K.F. Cheung serves as an academic dean and professor of historical theology and hermeneutics at Asia Lutheran Seminary (ALS). He also serves as the Asian representatives of Global Theological Education Committee in the Confessional Evangelical Lutheran Conference (CELC). As a church member of the South Asia Lutheran Evangelical Mission (SALEM) in Hong Kong, he is currently a deacon chairman at SALEM Yau Oi Congregation.

Cheung received his Ph.D. in civil engineering in 2010 from the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology. He then worked as a post-doctoral fellow at the university and joined Nano and Advanced Materials Institute Ltd. as a senior research engineer before 2014. From 2014-2016 he served as a teaching fellow in the department of civil engineering at Technological and Higher Education Institute of Hong Kong. Cheung became a part-time student at ALS in 2008 and received his Master of Divinity in 2016. He received the call from ALS and has served as a professor there since 2016. Cheung is now a Ph.D. candidate in history of exegesis at Concordia Seminary in St. Louis.

Cheung and his wife, Kaman, married in 2011. Kaman received her Ph.D. degree in design from the Hong Kong Polytechnic University in 2018 and served as a senior lecturer in the Hong Kong Design Institute. She is currently a student in the bachelor's degree program at ALS.
